By GLORIA DAY

Our Sunday School Campaign is well underway with a tie in Sunday School for those bringing in visitors. Skeets Mayberry and Connie Reynolds tied Sunday morning and each won a commentary. Next Sunday the one bringing the larger number of visitors will receive a fommentary on Proverbs by Ironside. In the overall Sunday School contest, the Rebels were one point ahead of the Yankees. Everyone make your contacts and try to bring a visitor next week.

We all enjoyed having the Sonshine Quartet with us in the evening service, with lots of special music.

Byron Roach and Karen Godsey joined our fellowship Sunday morning with Byron making a profession of faith in Jesus as his personal saviour. We are so happy to welcome this young couple who will soon be united in marriage.

Saturday was a big day for the first through sixth graders. Jim and Sue Bitner along with Dewey Woods had an olympic game at the old church location from 12:30 until around 6:00. The Bitners and Woods deserve a lot of credit for the time and effort put into this to make it a big success. The Word of Life Club members helped with games and kept score on everything from broad jump to popping water balloons with no hands. The kids had a great time and to top things off a magician came and entertained. Those winning ribbons were Jerri Leigh Sowell, Todd Day, Cindy Padgett, Greg Martin, Kim Woods, Jody Woods, Tracey Woods, David Woods, Jennifer Wiggins, Sharmon Higgins, Shana Harvey, Julie Gallagher and Joe Reynolds. Congratulations kids!

Please remember the following in prayer: Delores Ferguson, Greg Martin, Ellen Nash, and Nora Handy.

Verse for the week: Luke 18:27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men and possible with God.
